DOROTHY PARKER

November 7, 1951

Dear friend,

A good many people, in my time, have called me stubborn. I am writing to you because I think that, perhaps, you have been called stubborn too, from time to time -- and are proud of it.

I am stubborn in a way. I'm stubborn in my belief in the people of Spain -- and in refusing to forget that Francisco Franco is a fascist.

The form my stubbornness takes is my inability to grow callous to the hardship and suffering of the Spanish Republican refugees. Their land and lives are in ruins, but they have never lost faith. And that faith, I'm proud to say, has been nourished over the years by the generosity and friendship of a large number of stubborn Americans.

In the last three years alone, despite many difficulties in our path, the Spanish Refugee Appeal has sent abroad almost $140,000 in relief. Now, with the coming of winter, new hardships in France and Mexico must be alleviated.

I write to ask you to keep continuous this flow of American relief to the exiled victims of Spanish fascism. They look to us as never before in the twelve years of their exile. I write knowing that you will be as generous and willing -- and stubborn -- as Americans of conscience and honor have always been.

Won't you send your contribution to me today?

Sincerely,

Dorothy Parker

VETERANS OF THE ABRAHAM LINCOLN BRIGADE

[Confidential Informant T-13, of known reliability, advised in 1939] that the subject was a sponsor of the Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. (X)

The Special Committee on Un-American Activities report of March 29, 1944 reflects the following information regarding this organization:

"In 1937-1938, the Communist Party threw itself wholeheartedly into the campaign for the support of the Spanish Loyalist cause, recruiting men and organizing multifarious so called relief organizations."

The Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade was included as one of these organizations.

Page 754, Appendix 9 of the report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities lists DOROTHY PARKER as an active supporter and sponsor of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade fund drive for disabled veterans.

VOICE OF FREEDOM COMMITTEE

Page 10 of the January 17, 1949 issue of the "National Guardian" contained an article on the Voice of Freedom Committee which gave a short history of the same. According to this article, "the Committee took shape some two years ago when 'liberal commentators' were being driven off the air. 'Its moving spirit' was authoress DOROTHY PARKER." The article related that the Voice of Freedom Committee "serves unofficially as a watch-dog of radio" and that it has voluntary monitors who man nearly 2,000 listening posts throughout the United States. The article stated that favorite targets of these monitors are such "avowed names as FULTON LEWIS, JR., GABRIEL HEATTER, HENRY TAYLOR and KATE SMITH" at whom they fire a "merciless barrage of protests over distorted facts and unwarranted prejudices". The article stated that on the other hand, the Committee "hotly defends liberal newscasters forced -- or enroute -- to oblivion."

The California Committee on Un-American Activities report of 1949 cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948 aiming at national circulation which the Committee has found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management, and contents.

The "New York Post" newspaper, March 3, 1947, reflected an article written by PAUL DENIS which reported that a "Save the Voice of Freedom Committee" has been formed under Dr. HENRY PRATT FAIRCHILD for the purpose of putting "liberal commentators back on the air". This article reported that DOROTHY PARKER issued a preliminary statement for the Committee and it was further stated that the Committee was to hold a dinner at the Central Park Hotel in New York City on March 5, 1947 for the purpose of raising enough money to sponsor "liberal commentators" now off the air. DOROTHY PARKER was named Chairman of the Voice of Freedom Committee.

On March 8, 1947, Confidential Informant T-16, of known reliability, advised that the above mentioned dinner was sponsored by the "Save the Voice of Freedom Committee" and that it had not been contemplated that any permanent committee be established. However, the response at the dinner was so great that DOROTHY PARKER as well as the other speakers had urged the formation of a permanent committee for that purpose. This informant also advised that approximately 500 people attended the dinner and $3,000.00 was received in contributions. ~~X~~

According to information furnished by ~~(S)~~ Confidential Informant T-17, of known reliability, the Voice of Freedom Committee on May 8, 1947 held a rally at Town Hall, 123 East 43rd Street, New York City, which rally was "in defense of liberal commentators". The informant stated that the announcement of this rally distributed by the Voice of Freedom Committee reflected that DOROTHY PARKER was to participate in the rally.

The "Daily Worker" of January 20, 1948, page 13, column 3, announced that DOROTHY PARKER was to be honored at a dinner to be given on January 21, 1948 sponsored by the Voice of Freedom Committee and that it was to honor her for her contribution to American literature and the "cause of democracy".

[Confidential Informant T-17] ~~TX~~ furnished information regarding the above mentioned dinner and made available a release dated January 16, 1948 issued by the Voice of Freedom Committee stating:

"We honor DOROTHY PARKER as an artist and fighter because she has never pulled a punch nor lost her pungency. She has always had her way with words. She has had them turning hand-springs in prose and verse but besides making them funny, she has made them forthright and told them how to fight." According to this release, the Voice of Freedom Committee was to use the proceeds from the dinner in order to sponsor a thirteen week series of half hour forums over one of the large independent stations.

The publication "Voice of Freedom" of February, 1948, as furnished by Confidential Informant T-18, of known reliability, also referred to the testimonial dinner for DOROTHY PARKER and quoted one of the speakers who supported the Third Party Drive as saying, "Why choose the lesser evil when we can choose the greater good." ~~TX~~

The "Daily Worker" of January 27, 1948, page 13, also referred to the above dinner and reported that the Voice of Freedom Committee promised some excellent developments in the next few months.

This article indicated that "A testimonial to the progressive leadership of Rep. VITO MARCANTONIO is the former American Labor Party Congressman from New York.

The American Labor Party was cited as a Communist front organization by the House Committee on Un-American Activities on March 29, 1944.

[Confidential Informant T-22, on July 18, 1947, ~~TX~~ advised that DOROTHY PARKER has been a "valuable alliance" of the Communist Party and it was believed by the informant that she had at one time been a member of the Party.

Let us not be fooled -- this is just the beginning. Any of us who can't think America is simply grand and adorable the way it is now run by Capitalists are in for it. I protest this cruelty to decent American citizens. Dam their souls!' ~~X~~

In an article entitled, "Film Figures -- Red by Coast Group, Cry Lie" appearing in the "New York World Telegram" dated June 9, 1949, the following was reflected:

"The 1949 report of the California Un-American Activities Committee headed by Senator JACK TENNEY yesterday listed hundreds of persons as Communist appeasers or followers." The name DOROTHY PARKER appeared among those who "have conspicuously followed or appeased some of the Communist Party line program over a long period of time."

SECURITY MATTER - C
(Milwaukee file #100-4753)
(Bufile #100-199557)

On 4/4/50 LOUIS F. BUDENZ was interviewed concerning a statement he had originally made to Dr. J. B. MATTHEWS, formerly employed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities that he, BUDENZ, knew 400 concealed Communists. BUDENZ stated that he could not recall making this statement to MATTHEWS but that he did make this statement in the book which he had just written and which is to be published in the very near future, "Men Without Faces".

BUDENZ stated that if he revealed the 400 concealed Communists he would be deluged with libel suits, and even if he won them he would go broke plus having to devote all his time to defending himself. However, BUDENZ advised that he would furnish the New York Office with a list of 400 concealed Communists in the near future.

To date he has submitted approximately 136 names in which list appears the name of the above captioned individual. BUDENZ stated that his list of 400 concealed Communists does not include persons who were merely sympathetic with the party or who were known to him to be under party discipline. It only includes Communists.

However they may or may not have a Party card although he states that he knows they are Communists either because he personally met them at closed Communist meetings or his meeting with the person was such that he knew that he was a party member. In some instances BUDENZ never met the person, but knows the person to be a Communist because of a report by some Communist Party Official who described that person as a Communist. It should be noted that BUDENZ stated that he has never prepared a written list of concealed Communists. He has, however, compiled a mental list and he feels that he knows approximately 400 such persons. Specific information relative to BUDENZ' comments concerning each of the persons named by him will be obtained from BUDENZ as soon as possible. This information will be furnished to the interested field offices when obtained from BUDENZ.

(LOUIS BUDENZ 400)

Chief Clerk:

Open Case

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, formerly managing editor of the "Daily Worker" and a Communist Party functionary until he broke with the Party in October, 1945, has been interviewed during the past few months concerning the concealed Communists whom he knew. The person named above as the subject of this case, was one of those individuals whom BUDENZ described as a concealed Communist. BUDENZ describes a concealed Communist as one who does not hold himself out as a Communist and who would deny membership in the Party.

BUDENZ advised SA WILLIAM J. MC CARTHY, JR., on June 27, 1950, of all he knew concerning the subject that he felt was pertinent, and he dictated this information to a stenographer of this office, who was present during the interview.

He used, in order to bring out all he knew about the subject, the following set of questions. He considered all questions in connection with this subject. Where he did not comment on some particular question as to the activity of the subject, then it is because he had no knowledge. If he recalled anything about the subject as a result of these questions he dictated what he knew. The questions are as follows:

1. Identify individual
 - a. If observed a description and other identifying data;
 - b. If not seen, enough descriptive data about individual to positively identify him or her;
 - c. Any aliases
2. Narrate how he knows individual as a Communist.
 - a. If seen at a closed meeting, get date, place and persons present at meeting;
 - b. If told officially that individual was a Communist, who said it, what were the circumstances, and who was present;
 - c. Relate all occasions when he met or heard of individual as Communist.
3. Documents
 - a. Did individual ever write anything that might be considered Communist literature.
 1. For "Daily Worker", "New Masses", "Political Affairs", any front publications or other publications.

Letter to Director

Attached is a blind memorandum dictated by LOUIS F. BUDENZ and containing all the pertinent information concerning the subject which BUDENZ could presently recollect.

The original of each memo has been reviewed by Mr. BUDENZ and he has made any necessary corrections and he has signed the original. The signed original of each memo is being retained in the confidential informant file of LOUIS F. BUDENZ, NY file 62-8988.

Since the individuals such as the subject of this case are, according to BUDENZ, concealed Communists and since they are, in most instances, persons of some prominence, it is suggested that if the information appearing in the attached blind memo is reported, then Mr. BUDENZ should be given a temporary confidential informant symbol.

For the information of the Bureau the subject is one of the 400 concealed Communists whom BUDENZ stated he knew. The names of these concealed Communists were sent to the Bureau in the case captioned "Communist Party, USA, Internal Security -C".

DOROTHY PARKER

A writer of note.

From the late 1930's on, DOROTHY PARKER (whom I have never met) was constantly referred to officially by V. J. JEROME and ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG in the Cultural Commission as an active adherent of the Communist Party. In the late 1930's and early 1940's she was specifically mentioned in these discussions as being the chief coworker for the Party with DONALD OODEN STEWART in influencing writers in Hollywood and in the Party Writers' Unit there.

MISS PARKER was a very important person in assembling the Committee to Defend HARRY BRIDGES and played quite a part in getting the writers and Hollywood people in general back of the BRIDGES' cause. In that connection, from 1941 on, since I was in charge of BRIDGES' publicity for the Party, I was constantly advised officially by ROBERT MINOR, EUGENE DENNIS and JACK STACHEL that DR. PARKER was an adherent of the Communist Party.

MISS PARKER has been a member of countless Communist fronts.

ACTIVITIES

Communist Party Activities:

Mr. HARVEY WOLF, 3938 $\frac{1}{2}$ South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, voluntarily furnished the following information on December 2, 1940:

Mr. WOLF advised that he was a member of the Communist Party (hereinafter referred to as the CP) in the early 1930's, having joined the CP in 1933. At that time he was employed as a laboratory worker in the film industry in Hollywood and from his recollection of the activities of the CP during this period, he described DOROTHY PARKER, author and screen writer, as one of the leading characters in the Communist movement in Hollywood. PARKER had toured the United States speaking on behalf of the Spanish Loyalists according to the dictates of the CP line and was considered to be one of the most faithful individuals in the Communist movement.

T-5, of known reliability, advised in December, 1945 that DOROTHY PARKER was scheduled to be toastmistress at a Welcome Dinner for Returned Veterans, to be held at the Ambassador Hotel on Sunday, December 16, 1945. The informant advised that the announcement of this dinner was made at a meeting of the CP in Burbank, California on December 15, 1945. ~~X~~

LAWSON in Hollywood about 1932 and that it was completely dominated and controlled by the CP during the early years of its existence. [T-6] described DOROTHY PARKER as one of the principal figures in the Communist organization and control of the Screen Writers Guild.

[T-9, of known reliability, advised in November, 1945] that JOHN HOWARD LAWSON was a member of the Los Angeles County Communist Party (hereinafter referred to as the LACCP).

The Los Angeles Mirror, dated September 10, 1949 on page 1485, contains an article concerning individuals who signed a Brief in the case of the "Hollywood 10" to the United States Supreme Court. DOROTHY PARKER was named as one of the 382 film professional people who affixed their signatures to this Brief.

The "Hollywood 10" is a group of writers and directors who were subpoenaed before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in 1947 in connection with that committee's investigation of Communist infiltration into the motion picture industry. They were all held in contempt of congress for refusing to testify as to whether or not they had ever been members of the CP. [T-7, of known reliability, advised that he personally knew all members of the "Hollywood 10" to have been members of the CP in Hollywood.

[T-7, also a member of the CP in Hollywood among the cultural groups for more than ten years, has characterized DOROTHY PARKER, a writer, as a member of the CP in Hollywood approximately 12 years ago at about the peak of the Spanish Civil War. The informant advised that to his knowledge, the subject was no longer active and is probably out of the Communist movement entirely. It was informant's opinion that DOROTHY PARKER joined the CP during excessively emotional days of the Civil War in Spain. [According to T-7, PARKER has not been an important figure in the Communist movement in Hollywood during recent years.

[T-8, of known reliability, a former functionary of [T-10, of known reliability, in November, 1949 ~~TX~~ furnished a petition to address a telegram to Attorney General J. HOWARD MC GRATH, Washington, D. C., concerning the trial and conviction of the eleven Communist leaders for teaching and advocating an unpopular political doctrine which represents an invasion of the constitutional rights of all Americans. The telegram called upon the Attorney General to use his high office to halt the destruction of the Bill of Rights by discontinuing further prosecution of the "New York Eleven" in this case for their political beliefs. The telegram also requested the granting of reasonable bail to the eleven defendants pending the appeal of their case. One of the signers of the telegram which was to be addressed to the Attorney General was DOROTHY PARKER.

On April 13, 1951 the subject was interviewed at her home, 216 South Westgate, West Los Angeles by Special Agents MARCUS M. BRIGHT and GILMER G. ROBINSON. During the course of this interview, she denied ever having been affiliated with, having donated to, or being contacted by a representative of the CP.

She advised that she was personally acquainted with LILLIAN HELLMAN, DASHIELL HAMMET, DONALD OGDEN STEWART and ELLA WINTER. Miss PARKER advised that while she was personally acquainted with the above individuals, she denied that she had any knowledge that these persons have ever been members of the CP or that she ever sat in a CP meeting with them. She further advised that she was personally acquainted with JOHN HOWARD LAWSON and that this association had come about through her activities in the Screen Writers Guild. She said that LAWSON had never contacted her for financial contributions to the CP and she denied ever making any contribution to the LACCP.

The subject advised that she was unable to recall her having sponsored the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born and the American Committee for Yugoslav Relief. She recalled the American Continental Congress for Peace, but did not recall the extent of her participation in this organization. She also advised that she may have been a member of the American Council for a Democratic Greece. She recalled having participated in a program for the American Youth for Democracy and was vague as to whether or not she had been a toastmistress.

DOROTHY PARKER further recalled having been associated with the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the League of Women Shoppers, the United Spanish Aid Committee and the National Committee to Win the Peace. She was vague regarding her participation in the Civil Rights Congress, History Today, Inc. and the TOM MOONEY Committee. She recalled having participated in a program for the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and also recalled participating in the Voice of Freedom Committee.

~~[T-7]~~ has identified DASHIELL HAMMET as a well known and successful author who, along with a few other individuals, was formerly a member of a special group of the CP in Hollywood. ~~[T-7]~~ also described DONALD OGDEN STEWART, his wife, ELLA WINTER, and the subject as members of this special group of the CP in Hollywood.

~~[T-7]~~ has identified JOHN HOWARD LAWSON as one of the more important leaders of the CP movement in Hollywood, particularly during the years 1938 and 1939.

Overflow Rally Spurs Nelson Fight

(Reprinted from late edition of The Worker)

Can you fill a ballroom which has 450 seats for a "political" meeting on a midweek night in the middle of the hottest July in memory? The answer is that when it is a meeting about an American like Steve Nelson being in jail you not only fill it, you overflow it with get Steve out.

And the standees along the back and side of the Hotel Capitol ballroom weren't the only ones on their feet when the gallant Margaret Nelson, Steve's wife, mother of two, stepped to the microphone to talk about Steve. . . . Steve and Spain, for this meeting was called by Steve's fellow veterans of Spain on the 16th anniversary of the beginning of the glorious resistance to the invasion of the republic by Hitler and Mussolini.

"I bring you personal greetings from Steve from the Iron City jail where he is waiting for the State Supreme Court to rule on his appeal for bail," said Mrs. Nelson, in her calm, strong yet angry way.

She told the farce of the "trials," how the hysteria was poured on in Pittsburgh by the coal and steel barons and their trained press, yet how workers took thousands of leaflets about Steve, and only two leaflets were found on the sidewalks thrown away after the distribution.

"District Attorney James F. Malone and Gov. John F. Fine are the ones to write to," she said, just in case anybody didn't know.

Spain, the heroes who went there because they knew fascism had to be stopped or it would unleash World War II, and Steve Nelson one of the heroes, were the themes of this meeting.

Margaret Nelson went back proudly into Steve's life. "When Steve came from out of the Luzerne Mountain coal fields to leave his home and fight fascism his passport was marked, 'Not valid for Spain,' she recalled.

There were many there to speak of Steve, to link Spain, the fight for Steve's freedom and the fight for peace with their own lives, with the lives of all Americans who work and want peace and decency.

LAMPELL CHAIRMAN

Millard Lampell, author of "The Hero," which became that fine movie, "Saturday's Hero," was the chairman. He told how the meaning of Spain helped shape his life and work, had changed him from a youth in Paterson, N. J., who read only the sports pages to one who knew that the things he loved, including sports, were endangered unless fascism was beaten.

Dorothy Parker was there, one of the writers included in the splendid anthology, "The Heart of Spain." She wore smoked glasses, and she began by explaining that she wasn't hiding her identity from the FBI, for whom she had only monumental scorn. "I have a nasty infected eye," she continued, "probably from watching these conventions over television."

When the laughter subsided, she spoke of 16 years ago, of seeing first hand the suffering of the Spanish people under the monarchy, their pride in their republic, their magnificent fight for improvement, for literacy and decency in the midst of a savage war against unequal odds.

She noted the role of the press. "It was hard to tell in those days from the New York papers exactly what was going on, who was who and what it was all about," she commented. She then read an eloquent letter from Sean O'Casey, Irish playwright, on Spain and the better world ahead. She concluded with the clenched fist of "Salud!"

Dr. Edward Barsky was introduced to a great ovation. "He got through the Ebro all right," said Lampell. "He survived Guadalajara." It remained for his own U.S. Department of Justice to get him.

Milton Wolff, commander of the "Vets," noted that despite all the reactionary propaganda spread by Washington, President Truman still has to tell the country he doesn't like Franco.

"He says that," Wolff added, "because he's a politician. He knows millions of Americans will never like Franco. That's why we can free Franco's enemy, Steve Nelson."

Novelist Howard Fast spoke of history, and of people like Steve Nelson and his fellow heroes of our country.

"We live in an age of great people but don't always realize it," he said quietly. Then he hammered home two thoughts which were the substance of this spirited and dedicated meeting.

"To anyone who isn't completely bamboozled by the press and radio drivel," he said, "the thought of keeping Steve Nelson in jail 20 years is laughable. Because he was put in jail by frightened people who know they have no 20 years in front of them."

"Steve need not stay in prison. This is for us to decide, not for Fairless, a mighty wave of protest can quickly turn the tide and give the people a great victory."

BALDWIN

A testimonial dinner to honor C. B. Baldwin, national secretary of the Progressive Party, on his 50th birthday, will be held tonight Thursday, at the Hotel Commodore. Chairman of the dinner is Robert W. Kenny, former California attorney-general.

Baldwin, former head of the Farm Security Administration, and for many years a top government administrator under President Roosevelt, became executive vice-chairman of the Progressive Citizens of America in 1946 and two years later was selected as national secretary and campaign manager of the Progressive Party, a position he still holds today in the 1952 campaign for Vincent Hallinan and Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates, respectively, of the Progressive Party.

Among the speakers will be Paul Robeson, Dorothy Parker, J. P. Stone, Vito Marcantonio, and John Abt.

Belfrage Wins Bail

Judge Edward Weinfeld ruled yesterday that Cedric Belfrage, editor of the National Guardian, was entitled to bail pending deportation proceedings. Belfrage has been held on Ellis Island since May 15, where he was taken 24 hours after he refused to knuckle down to Sen. Joe McCarthy at a witchhunt hearing in Washington.

A native of England, Belfrage has been a resident in the U. S. since the early 1930's. He applied for citizenship in July, 1937, but was forced to interrupt the five-year residence requirement in order to undertake a World War II assignment in Europe with the Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Forces.

On May 14, McCarthy subpoenaed Belfrage and James Aronson, executive editor of the Guardian, and subjected them to the usual treatment accorded by the committee to journalists whose views do not coincide with McCarthyism. Belfrage and Aronson refused to answer McCarthy's questions, invoking their rights under the Fifth Amendment.

More than 700 persons, at a Cedric Belfrage fight-back meeting Friday night in the Palm Gardens, affirmed their determination to work for the freedom of the National Guardian's English-born editor now held without bond on Ellis Island.

Speakers included Dorothy Parker and Albert Kahn, writers; Russ Nixon, legislative representative of United Electrical Workers, and Thelma Dale, of the Progressive Party.

Six other speakers enlivened the meeting with accounts of their recent appearances before congressional committees. They were Nathan Witt, labor lawyer; William Mandel, writer; Arnaud D'Usseau, playwright; Victor Perlo, and Joe Joseph, economists, and David Flacks, teacher.

Prof. Henry Pratt Fairchild and John T. McManus of the Guardian co-chaired the meeting.

James Aaronson, another Guardian editor who was quizzed with Belfrage at his second inquisition, which preceded Belfrage's arrest by immigration officials, also spoke.

A chat with the reader

THERE is no grimmer portent for a neighborhood, we believe, than a deserted saloon. When the owner of the bar and grill closes his doors, sells his fixtures, and departs, it's a sure indication that the end of something or other is at hand. In Upper West Side where we live, something they call "slum clearance" is in operation. Acres upon acres of five story walk-up tenement houses are to be levelled to the ground to make way for a big housing project. But the housing project is not for us or our neighbors—it will provide modern apartments for well-to-do families. And what happens to the present tenants? They must go searching in the increasingly crowded slum areas for another apartment no better—and probably worse—than their present habitation.

BUT meanwhile as the city housing agency purchases one house at a time, the buildings become daily more dilapidated and run down.

We knew this process was going on in our neighborhood, for we were constantly encountering signs posted on boarded-up buildings: Property of New York Housing Authority; Renting Prohibited. But it was only when Flaherty's Bar and Grill on our corner failed to open last Monday morning that we realized that we were participating in the wake of a neighborhood. All of which confirms our conviction on this newspaper that housing is one of the most crucial problems of the American people. And that's why you'll find this issue getting more and more attention from us.

IT WAS in 1926 or thereabouts that we first fell in love with her. We had never seen her, of course, nor had we even a photograph to tell us whether she was dark or fair, short or tall. But that didn't matter. We were confident we knew all we needed to know about her, for had we not read hundreds of her verse? We knew she was sprightly, amusing, clever, or as the word went in those days, brittle. For that was the Dorothy Parker, author of Enough Rope and other light verse which began appearing in the late 1920s.

WE NEVER communicated our devotion and as time passed we went on to other things. And so did Dorothy Parker, as we gathered from pieces which came out now and then over her by-line in New Masses. Then came Spain and Dorothy Parker wrote one of the finest pieces produced by anybody concerning that epic struggle for the freedom of a people. That was the short story entitled Soldiers of the Republic which has found its way into at least two anthologies.

LAST WEEK we saw Dorothy Parker for the first time. She stood on the platform of the Amnesty rally at Manhattan Center. They have put the Smith Act defendants in jail, she said, hoping that they will be forgotten. "It's up to us," said Dorothy Parker quietly, "to see that they never will be forgotten. They did nothing to merit prison. . . . They thought—that's the thing—they thought. And it's a short step from being told what to think to being told not to think at all. Isn't what goes on in your own private, secret head your own? You can't just say, isn't this awful!" This, said Dorothy Parker, is the "right smack time" to fight for amnesty for political prisoners. Dorothy Parker's brief but pointed speech made us feel very good. Personally, we mean. It proved we were right more than 25 years ago, when unknown to her, we offered her our heart.—R.F.H.

Dear Friend:

SPANISH REFUGEE APPEAL has invited you, from time to time, to participate with us in theater events which we believed to be of the high caliber which would warrant your support.

The Phoenix Theatre, which has the proud record of three successful presentations (including "The Golden Apple"), has now chosen for its fourth production Anton Chekhov's great play "THE SEAGULL", for which they have assembled a truly remarkable cast. We have been most fortunate in obtaining tickets, because we understand that the theater is rapidly being sold out for this limited run.

We are happy to invite you to join us at this distinguished production of a Chekhov play, and by your participation to help us in our work of giving aid to Spanish Republicans in exile. Their appreciation is joined with ours for your continued support.

May we hear from you very soon? You won't want to miss this!

[redacted] advised SAs MARCUS M. BRIGHT & JOHN M. This group was for certain individuals who needed extra protection to prevent disclosure of their CP membership or sympathy. Although [redacted] was never a member of this particular group, she understood it included a comparatively small number of individuals, among whom were: DONALD OGDEN STEWART, DASHIELL HAMMETT, DOROTHY PARKER, ELLA WINTER, & LILLIAN HELLMAN, all rather prominent writers. Informant believed the CP used this group principally for money and prestige, and [redacted] again pointed out that this group may not have been, strictly speaking, a CP branch, and its members were not necessarily ipso facto CP members. Huh?

September 5, 1951.

Dear friend,

A good many people, in my time, have called me stubborn. I am writing to you because I think that, perhaps, you have been called stubborn too, from time to time -- and are proud of it.

I am stubborn in a way. I'm stubborn in my belief in the people of Spain -- and in refusing to forget that Francisco Franco is a fascist. And I'm getting more and more so as I watch American guns and dollars convert Spain openly into a sea and air base for war.

The form my stubbornness takes is my inability to grow callous to the hardship and suffering of the Spanish Republican refugees. Their land and lives are in ruins, but they have never lost faith. And that faith, I'm proud to say, has been nourished over the years by the generosity and friendship of a large number of stubborn Americans.

In the last three years alone, despite many difficulties in our path, the Spanish Refugee Appeal has sent abroad almost $140,000 in relief. Now, with the coming of fall, new hardships in France and Mexico must be alleviated.

I write to ask you to keep continuous this flow of American relief to the exiled victims of Spanish fascism. They look to us as never before in the twelve years of their exile. I write knowing that you will be as generous and willing -- and stubborn -- as Americans of conscience and honor have always been.

Won't you send your contribution to me today?

Dorothy Parker

work in defending cases in Baltimore - mentioned a woman (name unknown) who is a foremost authority on children's diseases who had been unjustly (?) convicted under Smith Act - Praised THOMPSON & Rally received a tremendous ovation on retiring from the stage & proceeding out through the audience.

LEON STRAUSS (for union) Besides THOMPSON mentioned names of his Union Boss IRVING POTASH, NELSON & others I did not know who also are victims - Talk turned political against

EISENHOWER (enclosed) - only 2 people had started fight to free TOM MOONEY - this committee could do the same.

Impressions -

The audience with a very few exceptions looked like the element you would see in the fur district along 7th Ave. - Like puppets they booed at every reference to MC CARTHY - facists - reactionaries - any large corporation and applauded every name mentioned as a Smith Act or investigated victim - DOROTHY PARKER may have spoken at the start of the meeting but I did not see her after I arrived - Tickets were sold at the door for admission (50¢) - Copies of the magazine NATION were prominently on display on a table near the door along with the enclosed card.

re: Amnesty Christmas Rally.

Over 800 communists, progressives and left wing trade unionists came to the "Amnesty Christmas Rally" held on Dec. 17th, 1953 at the Manhattan Plaza in New York. The audience consisted mostly of middle age men and women. Women were in the majority. Youth had about 200 in the hall. Most of the audience were Jews. There were a few Russians and Ukrainians; a sprinkle of latins and some 50 or so Negroes. ~~X~~

The functionaries of this meeting, such as ticket sellers, ticket takers, ushers, etc. were communists. ~~X~~

The chairman of the meeting was Dr. Edward Barsky. ~~X~~

In his speech Dr. Barsky appealed to President Eisenhower to grant "amnesty to the great American patriots who were imprisoned for the crime of fighting for peace" and in this way "right the wrong" against them. He underlined that the granting of amnesty to "political prisoners" in the United States isn't new. He enumerated some of the cases where amnesty was granted by Presidents including the freeing of Debs on the recomandation of U.S. Attorney General Dougherty. Barsky said that "our country is drifting into fascism"; that "Mc Carthyism is the American version of fascism"; that the leaders of the American people and of the peace movement are in the prisons today because of the cold war and of the reactionary war in the country" and he appealed to the people: "the fight for amnesty of the Smith Act victims is a fight against the coming of fascism to this country and is a fight for world peace." ~~X~~

Prof. Royal France was introduced as the man "who gave up his professorship in a university in Florida so he can devote his talent to fight for the civil rights of the American people." ~~X~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Royal France made a short speech. He stated that "the Smith Act is unconstitutional because its aim is the destruction of the Bill of Rights; the Smith Act is undermining the very foundation of American freedom." He underlined that "the Communist leaders were trown in the prisons not because not they committed any criminal acts but because they have certain thoughts and opinions which disagree with the thoughts and opinions of the politicians in Washington. As long as people are being perscuted for expressing an opinion there is no security for any one. As long as the Communists are in prison no one in the country is free." X

Leona Thompson made a "dramatic" speech. (Towards the end of the meeting a motion was made from the floor to have her speech printed for mass distribution. The meeting adopted this motion and the chairman announced that the "National Committee to Win Amnesty for the Smith Act Victims" will make arrangements for the printing and distribution of Leona's speech.) She said that "the winning of amnesty for political prisoners takes on a particularly significant conotation today when Mc Carthyism threatens the right to work, to think, the very right to breathe." &

She spoke about the attack made on her husband Robert Thompson by a prisoner. "One might assume that this dastardly act was a warning to Communists to shut up or else. No, This blow is a warning to all Americans that what happened to my husband is on the agenda for them if they do not fight back." &

Leona Thompson that Thompson is being deprived of "adequate medical attention" and that he is "deprived of priviligues he had before the attack". She described a lunch she and her daughter had with Robert Thompson and how her daughter "danced before him in the bull pen." She underlined that "the American people are begining to understand that in fighting Mc Carthyism they are retaining for themselves the right to a peacefull destiny." She said that "thousands of staunch and brave people (like or husband) will continue to be the backbone of the fight against fascism in this country." She told the meeting: "There will be a change. Yes, there is a fresh breeze blowing. You must make it sweep the country by your fight for amnesty; by your demands that the political persecution of my husband and others be stopped." X

Dorothy Parker (shook hands and kissed Leona Thompson) said that she couldn't believe that "a time will come when in my beloved country in America people will be trown in prison for thinking and expressing an opinion." She said that she is "bewildered" but this is not enough. Something must be done about it. Firstly, we must put an end to fear; secondly, we must see to it that these patriotic people be freed from the prisons. They want us to forget those in prison, but they will not be forgotten. This meeting must be the beginning of a great campaign which will awaken the concious of America against the crime which is being committed against such heroes of our country as the Robert Thompsons." ~~X~~

Leon Straus stated that "Mc Carthyism is a threat to the American labor movement." He underlined that this country should start trading with the Soviet Union, China and the East European peoples Democracies underlining that this will "not only end the cold war but will give jobs to hundreds of thousands of workers in America". He called upon the people to fight for amnesty for all the "Smith Act Victims." He said that the fight for amnesty is not a new thing in this country. He underlined that "The waves of amnesty are now sweeping many countries" and that "we must fight here for amnesty of all our political prisoners." ~~X~~

Carl Marzani made the collection speech. He also spoke of the "Amnesty tradition in this country and that amnesty is being granted in every country in the world. He said the fact that people are being imprisoned "for such criminal acts as thinking shows that the Mc Carthy's are weak and scared." He asked for donations "to carry on the fight for ~~amnesty~~ for the Smith Act victims." He also called for the organization of amnesty neighborhood committees. The collection was about $1,500. ~~X~~

Dr. Du Bois (received a standing ovation) gave a historic review of amnesties in the U.S. underlining that "amnesty was granted even to the men of slavery and violence who tried to overthrow the government in the Civil War. No such accusations were made against the communists." He said that he doesn't know all of the "Smith Act Victims", but he knows well Benjamin Davis who could have lived an easy life but he was always a serious man and "he choose the road of serving the poor and the persecuted, negro and white alike." He said that it is "a shame to the country to keep such a person in prison" and that "we must make an ~~X~~ end to this. We must demand the granting of amnesty to Davis and all other political prisoners. ~~X~~

At the suggestion of the chairman the meeting instructed the "N.C. to W. A. for the S.V. to send, in the name of the meeting, a resolution to President Eisenhower to "immediately" free Robert Thompson and all others who are imprisoned under the Smith Act. ~~X~~

It was also decided to send an appeal to Bennett, director of Federal prisons, to give R. Thompson a chance to recuperate from the attack made on him by a prisoner. During the meeting the chairman introduced Celia Zitron as the "able secretary of the National Committee to Win Amnesty. ~~X~~

Carl Marzani asked the audience to buy copies of "The Nation" (copy enclosed) which were being sold at a table at the entrance into the meeting hall. ~~X~~

SPANISH REFUGEE APPEAL
23 West 26th Street New York 10, N.Y.

February , 1954

Dear Friend:

I am happy to tell you that for our first theater evening of 1954 we have chosen THE THREEPENNY OPERA, on SUNDAY EVENING, March 14th.

Written by Kurt Weill and Bert Brecht, this popularized modern opera has been adapted by Marc Blitzstein. Lotte Lenya (who was the late Kurt Weill's wife), who has been called "incomparable" in her interpretation of Weill's music, heads an excellent cast. The director will be Carmen Capalbo, and Samuel Matlowsky, recently returned from conducting the "Porgy and Bess" company on its European tour, will conduct the eight-man orchestra.

Let me tell you what Howard Taubman, music critic of the New York TIMES, says of THE THREE PENNY OPERA:

"The Beggar's Opera, the source material of THE THREEPENNY OPERA, was written by John Gay and had its premier in England more than two centuries ago. In the late Twenties, Kurt Weill and Bert Brecht made an adaptation in Germany, and it was introduced in Berlin in 1928. It ran for years - in and out of Germany. Brecht took Gay's book and made it meaningful for the troubled and yet vibrant Berlin of those days. Weill wrote a score that has inventiveness and subtlety, that used jazz idioms with independence and freshness and that imparted an ineffable pathos to a story that is amusing on the surface but that is impregnated with a ferocious bitterness. Marc Blitzstein has done a truly creative job in preparing his new English adaptation. THE THREEPENNY OPERA is a sure shot to enliven the coming season."

Albert J. Elias of the New York COMPASS said:

"What a beautiful work! Its story of hoodlums and beggars is by turns farcical, ironical, trenchant, sweet and sad. Its music lingers with the listener...so filled with the flavor of jazz, fresh, lively and vital."

The play will be presented at the Theater De Lys - the charming and comfortable new small theater in Greenwich Village, where such hits as "End As A Man" and "Bullfight" have recently been shown.

We believe that this will be an exceptionally exciting and unusual evening in the theater.

The order blank enclosed indicates our modest scale of prices - which include, as usual, your contribution to the support of clinics and hospitals for the courageous Spanish Republican refugees.

I hope you will be able to join us, and suggest that you order tickets now for the best choice of seats.

Cordially,

Wrothy Parker

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

On 10/15/54 [redacted] orally furnished the writer the following information concerning a dinner she attended in honor of ESLANIA and PAUL ROBESON on 10/14/54 at the Manhattan Towers Hotel, 76th St. and Broadway, NYC. Informant advised that the dinner was sponsored by the "New World Review" and estimated the attendance to be 450.

Informant advised that though the above dinner was ostensibly in honor of the ROBESONS it appeared to be mainly a fund raising affair for the "New World Review." Informant pointed out that of all the Communist affairs she has attended, even in the "old days", never has she seen the contribution so large. Informant estimated the total collection to be $5,000. Informant advised that this figure includes the following contributions:

CORLISS LAMONT	$1,000
FREDERICK V. FIELD	$ 500
LOUISE BERMAN	$ 500

Informant advised that the above collection estimate by her was corroborated in that LOU DRUCKER, whom informant met at the dinner, advised her that he learned from THEODORE BAYER, formerly on the staff of "New World Review" and present at the dinner, that the total contribution was $5,000 which was beyond the expectation of all.

Informant advised that the general theme followed by all the speakers was the paying of tribute to the ROBESONS for their continuing struggle for a peaceful world; and the need for peaceful co-existence between nations. Informant could furnish no specific information concerning the speeches made by various individuals.

Informant advised that the following individuals spoke at the above dinner:

ROCKWELL KENT
LOUIS BURNHAM
DR. W.E.B. DUBOIS
VICTORIA GARVIN
KUNAR GOSHAL
REV. KENNETH DE P. HUGHES
RING LARDNER, JR.
DOROTHY PARKER

Informant advised that the following individuals were observed on the speakers platform:

ESLANDA ROBESON
ALPHAUS HUNTON
MRS. W.E.B. DUBOIS
WILLIAM L. PATTERSON
LOUISE PATTERSON
LARRY BROWN

Informant pointed out that LARRY BROWN was formerly a piano accompanist and long-time friend of PAUL ROBESON. Informant advised that BROWN left early; apparently without telling ROBESON, as when ROBESON referred to BROWN as a long-time friend in his speech, he seemed embarrassed to find him gone.

NY 100-6393

Informant advised that she was warmly greeted by Mrs. DUBOIS who asked her (informant) to call so they could talk over old times. Informant advised that she first met Mrs. DUBOIS, as SHIRLEY GRAHAM, in 1947, at which time Mrs. DUBOIS was affiliated with the Arts Science and Professions Group.

Informant advised that songs were sung by MADINE BREWER and a children's chorus from the Metropolitan Music School led by EARL ROBINSON.

Informant advised that the following individuals were also observed at the dinner:

ANDREW VOYNOW

Informant advised that VOYNOW was a member of the CP in 1946. Informant based this on the fact that VOYNOW was a member of her CP club, Benjamin Franklin Group, a CP cultural group, when she first joined in the latter part of 1946 but was transferred shortly thereafter.

NY 100-6393

Informant furnished a copy of the October 1954 issue of "New World Review" which had been placed on all the tables for the guests. This copy is being retained in the 1-A section of subject file.

In the event the above information is to be disseminated outside the Bureau, it should be so paraphrased to protect the informant.

Information concerning subjects from different Field Offices will be disseminated by separate letter by the Agent handling subject case and will include the reports of other informants attending the dinner.

"Dinner just like all dinners - regular run of the mill.

"Children under the direction of Earl Robertson of Met. School of Music sang few songs in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robeson.

"Dinner was to pay tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robeson and all the speakers praised them for the wonderful work they are doing. Many of the speakers commented on Mr. Wilson's remark about the bird dog; and kennel dog; and expressed their dislike for McCarthy.

"Some of the speakers -

"Dr. Ward - Union Theological Seminary
Rockwell Kent - M.C.
Jessie Smith in charge of 'New World Review'

"Rev. Harold Hughes - Minster from Boston blamed U. S. for the crime wave, told how before 'Killer Burke' went into the Army he was an average boy but when the Army got hold of him he was taught to kill with a gun, knife, hand-grenade and by hand and it was right, then when he was discharged it was wrong.

First name Dorothy (Parker - inserted) small women, wear hair pulled back, with bangs - she said she didn't know why the state dept. wouldn't let Paul Robeson go over seas when he was the best 'Good Will Ambassador' we had. She said she had to agree with McCarthy when he said Mrs. Robeson was a remarkable woman.

"Mr. Paul Robeson in his speech thanked all his many friends and his wife for his success because she had inspired him and without her help he would not be doing what he is now doing.

"He also spoke of his slave grandfather and how things have changed but there is still room for improvement. When he went to Russia and crossed the border how for the first time he felt free and could stand straight and throw his shoulders back and was glad to be alive.

"Mrs. Paul Robeson - happy to be associated with Paul glad to have helped and hopes to continue the work because there is still a lot to do and hopes she can go to China and all over the world.

"The dinner was over at 11:45.

orally advised that the dinner, above mentioned, was attended by approximately 450 people. She said that HOWARD FAST made a brief appearance at the dinner, during which time his new book was mentioned and everyone was urged to buy it.

MEMO TO SAC, NY
NY 100-6393

On 10/15/54, [redacted] of known reliability, orally advised SA PETER J. LEIGHTON that he attended a dinner for the ROBESONS on 10/14/54. [redacted] advised that, although, the dinner was ostensibly in honor of the ROBESONS it appeared to be mainly a fund raising affair for "New World Review."

The informant pointed out that of all the Communist affairs he has ever attended, he has never seen such large donations and contributions made as were made at this dinner. The informant estimated the total collection to be $5,000, which included $1,000 from CORLISS LAMONT; $1,000 from FREDERICK V. FIELD; and $500 from LOUISE BERMAN.

The informant said that the above estimate was verified as he learned from THEODORE BAYER, formerly on the staff of "New World Review" that the collection was approximately five thousand dollars and was beyond all expectations.

In the December 27, 1953 edition of "The Worker", page 11, column 1, there is reflected an article entitled "A Chat With the Reader" by "R.F.H.". The following is an excerpt from this article:

"It was in 1926 or thereabouts that we first fell in love with her. We had never seen her, of course, nor had we even a photograph to tell us whether she was dark or fair, short or tall. But that didn't matter. We were confident we knew all

"we needed to know about her, for had we not read hundreds of her verse? We knew she was sprightly, amusing, clever, or as the word went in those days, brittle. For that was the Dorothy Parker, author of Enough Rope and other light verse which began appearing in the late 1920's.

"We never communicated our devotion and as time passed we went on to other things. And so did Dorothy Parker, as we gathered from pieces which came out now and then over her byline in 'New Masses'. Then came Spain and Dorothy Parker wrote one of the finest pieces produced by anybody concerning that epic struggle for the freedom of a people. That was the short story entitled Soldiers of the Republic which has found its way into at least two anthologies.

"Last week we saw Dorothy Parker for the first time. She stood on the platform of the Amnesty rally at Manhattan Center. They have put the Smith Act defendants in jail, she said, hoping that they will be forgotten. "It's up to us," said Dorothy Parker quietly, 'to see that they never will be forgotten. They did nothing to merit prison... They thought-- that's the thing--they thought. And it's a short step from being told what to think to being told not to think at all. Isn't what goes on in your own private, secret head your own? You can't just say, isn't this awful!' This, said Dorothy Parker, is the 'right smack-time' to fight for amnesty for political prisoners. Dorothy Parker's brief but pointed speech made us feel very good." Personally, we mean. It proved we were right more than 25 years ago, when unknown to her, we offered her our heart."

"The Worker" is the Sunday edition of the "Daily Worker"

"New Masses" is cited as a "Communist periodical" by Attorney General FRANCIS BIDDLE, Congressional Record, page 7688, September 24, 1942.

E. Association With Progressive Party

The National Committee, Communist Party, USA, in issuing its final text of the "Resolution Growing Out of the Presidential Elections" in "Political Affairs", issue of July, 1953, states in substance that in 1948, the Communist Party helped stimulate the formation of the Progressive Party through the 1952 elections. It then states: "However, the mistake our Party made was to confuse this task with the historic task of forming a new mass party of the people. As a consequence, there existed the wrong estimate that the formation of the Progressive Party represented something more than the simple emergence of an important fighting force for peace; that it represented the emergence of a great mass people's party."

As a result of this reasoning, it concludes that the "Progressive Party, the Communist Party and other progressive forces" must unite in a broad, mass front coalition.

"Political Affairs" has been cited as follows:

1. Cited as an "official Communist Party monthly theoretical organ."
"Political Affairs, formerly known as The Communist, 'a magazine of the theory and practice of Marxism-Leninism published monthly by the Communist Party of the United States of America,' now calls itself 'a magazine devoted to the theory and practice of Marxism-Leninism.' Its chief editor is EUGENE DENNIS, Executive Secretary of the Party."
(Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, Report No. 1920, May 11, 1948, pp. 5 and 36; also cited in Report No. 209, April 1, 1947, p. 25.)
2. New name for the monthly ideological publication of the Communist Party, The Communist.
(California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948, p. 252.)

According to the August 14, 1952 issue of the "Daily Worker, page 2, column 3, the subject was scheduled to speak at a testimonial dinner to honor C. B. BALDWIN, National Secretary of the Progressive Party. According to the "Daily Worker", the dinner was to be held at the Hotel Commodore, New York City, on August 14, 1952.

F. Miscellaneous Communist Party Activities

[On June 27, 1950, T-12, of known reliability, advised that from the late 1930's on, the subject was constantly referred to officially by V. J. JEROME and ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG in the Cultural Commission as an active adherent of the Communist Party.

[T-12 also stated that in the late 1930's and early 1940's, the subject was specifically mentioned in these discussions as being the chief co-worker for the Communist Party, together with DONALD OGDEN STEWART in influencing writers in the Communist Party Writers Unit in Hollywood.

[According to T-12, ~~the~~ the individual in charge of publicity for the Citizens Committee to Defend HARRY BRIDGES was constantly advised officially by EUGENE DENNIS and JACK STACHEL that the subject was an adherent of the Communist Party. According to T-12, the subject was a very important person in assembling the Citizens Committee to Defend HARRY BRIDGES.

V. J. JEROME and ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG were Communist Party leaders convicted in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, on January 21, 1953, for violation of the Smith Act of 1940.

The California Committee on Un-American Activities, 1949 report, at page 498, reflected that DONALD OGDEN STEWART had been affiliated with from 71 to 80 Communist front organizations.

The Citizens Committee to Defend HARRY BRIDGES has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

EUGENE DENNIS and JACK STACHEL were indicted under the Smith Act of 1940 on July 20, 1948 in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York. They were convicted October 14, 1949 and on July 2, 1951 began serving five year sentences.

[T-13, of known reliability, advised April 24, 1951, ~~that~~ that during the early part of the Communist Party movement in Hollywood, California, in the latter part of the 1930's, there was a highly secret group, which was dominated by the Communist Party, but was not necessarily a closed Party unit. T-13 stated that the subject was one of this group but advised that he believed the Communist Party used this group primarily for money and prestige and that the group, strictly speaking, may not have been a Communist Party branch and its members not necessarily Communist Party members.

According to the "Daily Worker" dated June 10, 1953, page 3, column 2, the subject spoke at a meeting held in the Palm Gardens, 306 West 52nd Street, New York City, on June 5, 1953.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to the "Daily Worker", the meeting was held to free CEDRIC BELFRAGE, Editor of the "National Guardian". The "Daily Worker" did not reflect any of the text of the subject's speech.

The 1949 report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, page 394, cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948 aiming at a national circulation, which they found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management and contents.

[On October 15, 1954, T-14, of known reliability, advised that the subject spoke at a dinner held October 14, 1954 at the Manhattan Towers Hotel, 76th Street and Broadway, New York City. T-14 advised that this dinner was held in honor of ESLANDA and PAUL ROBESON and was sponsored by the "New World Review". T-14 advised he was unable to furnish any specific information concerning the subject's speech at this dinner.]

[T-12 advised June 29, 1950 that ESLANDA ROBESON was a member of the Communist Party in 1925, but that she did not hold herself out as a Communist and denied membership in the Party. T-12 advised that she was a devoted member of the Communist Party along with her husband, PAUL ROBESON.]

According to the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, 82nd Congress, First Session, dated May 14, 1951, "Soviet Russia Today", which was cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report of March 29, 1944, page 167, changed its name in March, 1951 to the "New World Review". According to the Guide, the citation of "Soviet Russia Today" also applies to the "New World Review".

[T-9, T-15, T-16, and T-17, informants of known reliability, and who are familiar with certain phases of Communist Party activity in the New York City area, advised that they knew of no current Communist Party activity on the part of the subject.]

was present at his home in 1937 when the Hollywood Communist Party was formed.

LOUIS BUDENZ has stated the subject was constantly officially referred to by V. J. JEROME and ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG as a Communist Party adherent.

HARRY WOLF, admitted CP member, advised that the subject was one of the leading characters in the Communist movement in Hollywood in the 1930's.

On 4/13/51, the subject was interviewed by Bureau agents and she denied membership in the CP, but admitted associations with the JAFRC, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the Hollywood League of Women Shoppers, The United American-Spanish Aid Committee, and the National Committee to Win the Peace. She also admitted participating in programs for the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade.

In 1952, subject spoke at a meeting sponsored by the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and JAFRC and said at this meeting that she "wasn't hiding her identity from the FBI for whom she had only monumental scorn." She was listed as Chairman of the Spanish Refugee Appeal of the JAFRC in March, 1952 and solicited funds for the Appeal from November, 1951-1954. She spoke at rallies sponsored by the National Committee to Win Amnesty for Smith Act Victims in December, 1953 and January, 1954. She also spoke at a dinner in October, 1954 honoring ESLANDA and PAUL ROBESON.

In view of the fact the subject has been alleged to have been a member of the CP by BUDENZ, as well as others and in view of the fact that the subject has been active in soliciting money for the Spanish Refugee Appeal of the JAFRC, as well as her activity described above, it is requested that the subject be placed on the Security Index.

On 3/15/55, the writer reviewed minutes of a public hearing of the NYS Joint Legislative Committee of Charitable and Philanthropic Agencies and Organizations (NYSJLC) concerning testimony regarding captioned organization on 2/23, 24, & 25/55.

The record reflects that MARK STRAUS, PAULINE ROYCE, and DOROTHY PARKER testified. STRAUS and ROYCE utilized the Fifth Amendment of the US Constitution and Article I, Section 6 of the NYS Constitution in declining to answer practically all questions regarding the JAFRC.

DOROTHY PARKER testified that she had been called National Chairman of the JAFRC and had signed appeals emanating from this group. She stated that she knew nothing regarding the finances or actual operation of the Committee.

WILLIAM LOVELOCK, an investigator for the NYSJLC, made available a copy of the report on the JAFRC prepared by a CPA firm. The report is based on an analysis of JAFRC financial records obtained by the NYSJLC. Copies of this report have been furnished to the Bureau and a Photostat is being exhibited in captioned case file (100-3642-1A).

It is to be noted that this financial report is not a part of the public hearing and the source should be protected.

The writer also reviewed a collection of Photostats of letter and appeals from the JAFRC signed by PARKER, STRAUS and ROYCE, but there was nothing available which is not included in the NYO files.

The Lyons Den

By Leonard Lyons

Two Government men came to the apartment of Dorothy Parker. They wanted to question her about some of her left-wing committee affiliations. Mrs. Parker's two pet dogs romped all over the room, paying no heed to her commands to stay put. When the questioners asked about the extent of her influence upon the committees, Mrs. Parker replied: "My influence? Look at these two dogs of mine. I can't even influence them."

Re SAC Letter 55-8, 2/2/55, and Bulet, 3/28/55.

In accordance with instructions contained in rebulet,
the following information is set out regarding the subject:

A. CP ACTIVITY

1. On 6/27/50, LOUIS F. BUDENZ (protect by 'a T symbol) advised that from the late 1930's on, DOROTHY PARKER, a writer, (whom he never met) was constantly referred to officially by
V. J. JEROME and ALEXANDER TRACHTENBERG in the Cultural Commission, as an active adherent of the CP. In the late 1930's and early 1940's, according to BUDENZ, she was specifically mentioned in these discussions as being the chief co-worker for the Party, together with DONALD OGDEN STEWART in influencing writers in Hollywood, California, and in the Party Writers' Unit there.
BUDENZ stated that she played a large part in assembling the Committee to Defend Harry Bridges. BUDENZ also advised that from 1941 on, he was in charge of BRIDGES' publicity and was constantly told by ROBERT MINOR, EUGENE DENNIS and JACK STACHEL that PARKER was an adherent of the CP.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

2. [redacted] advised on 8/4, 10/50 that he was a member of the CP in Hollywood, California, for more than ten years. The informant stated that PARKER, a writer, was a member of the CP in Hollywood, California, around the time of the peak of the Spanish Civil War. The informant stated that to his knowledge, PARKER was no longer active and was probably out of the Communist movement entirely.

3. On 9/19/51, MARTIN BERKELEY, Screen Writer, testified before a public session of a subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, US House of Representatives, Los Angeles, California, that DOROTHY PARKER was present at a meeting held in his home in Hollywood, California, in June 1937. He testified that at this meeting, the Hollywood Section of the CP was formed. He testified that because of her prominence, she later became a member at large and as such did not attend CP meetings.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

4. [] advised 4/24/51 that during the early part of the CP movement in Hollywood, California, in the latter part of the 1930's there was a highly secret group, which was dominated by the CP but which was not necessarily a closed Party unit. This informant stated that this group was for certain individuals, who needed extra protection to prevent disclosure of their CP membership or sympathy. The informant advised that although she, the informant, was never a member of this group, she understood that DOROTHY PARKER, a prominent writer, was in this group. The informant stated that the CP used this group principally for money and prestige and advised that this group may not have been, strictly speaking, a CP branch, and that its members were not necessarily, ipso facto, CP members.

5. [] a former functionary of the Los Angeles County CP, advised 2/24/51 that to his knowledge, DOROTHY PARKER had not been an active member of the CP in recent years and had never been a member of the CP, to the informant's knowledge.

6. On 4/13/51, DOROTHY ROTHSCHILD PARKER, was, was interviewed by Bureau Agents and denied ever having been affiliated with, having donated to, or being contacted by a representative, of the CP. She stated that she knew LILLIAN HELLMAN, DASHIELL HAMMETT, DONALD OGDEN STEWART, and ELLA WINTER, but not as members of the CP. She stated that she had never attended a CP meeting with them. She advised she knew JOHN HOWARD LAWSON but stated that he had never asked her for money for the CP. She stated that she could not recall sponsoring the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born, or the American Committee for Yugoslav Relief. She stated that she may have been a member of the American Council for Democratic Greece and that she may have taken part in the American Youth for Democracy Program but was vague as to her participation in the Civil Rights Congress. She stated that she had been associated with the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League, the Hollywood League for Democratic Action, the League of Women Shoppers, the United Spanish Aid Committee, and the National Committee to Win the Peace.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Letter to Director
NY 100-98708

It is noted that [redacted] stated that HAMMETT, STEWART and WINTER were in a special group of the CP in Hollywood, California, and that LAWSON was one of the more important CP leaders in the CP movement in Hollywood, California, during the period 1938-1939.

7. In January 1955, [redacted] advised that they knew of no current CP activity on the part of the subject.

8. On 2/25/55, the subject, after being duly sworn, testified at a Public Hearing of the New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Charitable and Philanthropic Agencies and Organizations, that she was called the National Chairman of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. She testified she believed that she did not compose letters sent out by this committee, appealing for money, but that she signed them. She testified that she did not know anything about the finances or the actual operation of this committee. She testified that she believed she had acted as a sponsor for the Civil Rights Congress but stated that she did not know that the CP controlled the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and had never asked about it or the Civil Rights Congress. When she was asked if she ever was, or was then, a member of the CP, she declined to answer and invoked the Fifth Amendment.

B. ASSOCIATION WITH COMMUNIST FRONT GROUPS

1. According to the 12/6/44 edition of the "Daily Worker," page 4, column 5, the subject spoke at a Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee dinner, held 12/4/44 at NYC.

2. According to the 2/28/47 edition of the "Daily Worker," page 2, column 5, the name "DOROTHY PARKER" appeared on a statement published by the Civil Rights Congress condemning "The shameful persecution of the German anti-Fascist Refugee GERHART EISLER" and calling for the abolition of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

3. [redacted] advised that the subject was co-chairman of a Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee dinner, held 3/21/50 at NYC.

Letter to Director
NY 100-98708

4. According to a letter furnished by WALTER WINCHELL, which letter was dated 3/10/52, and sent by the Spanish Refugee Appeal, DOROTHY PARKER was listed as chairman of this Appeal.

5. The 7/28/52 edition of the "Daily Worker" page 8, columns 1-5, reflected that the subject spoke at a meeting, held in NYC on 7/24/52, sponsored by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee and the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. At this meeting, according to the "Daily Worker," the subject stated, ".....She wasn't hiding her identity from the FBI, for whom she had only monumental scorn."

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

6. [On 1/6/54, [redacted] advised that the subject spoke at an "Amnesty Christmas Rally," sponsored by the National Committee to Win Amnesty for Smith Act Victims. This informant advised that the rally was held 12/17/53, NYC, and that the subject, in her speech, called for an end of fear and the freeing of Smith Act victims from prison.

Although the foregoing information reflects CP front activity in the past three years, and the subject could technically qualify for inclusion in the Security Index, it is not felt that she is dangerous enough to warrant her inclusion in same. It is, accordingly, recommended that she not be placed on the Security Index.

School Board Run By Gang, Says Unionist

PHILADELPHIA—In a speech last Saturday to the 10th Annual Luncheon-Conference of the Philadelphia Teachers Union at the Sylvania Hotel, President Francis P. Jennings charged that the city schools are under control of a small gang which is using its power for its own benefit, regardless of the welfare of the children attending.

The procedure in appointing its members makes that body "thrice removed from control by the people" through giving to the judges of the Court of Common Pleas the authority to appoint its members.

The Teachers Union has been a target for attacks by the School Board particularly during the past two years. Twenty-six of its more active members were fired last year.

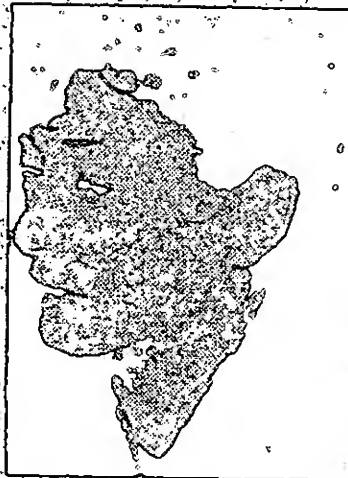

QUESTIONED BY Superintendent of Schools Louis Hoyer as to their political beliefs and affiliations, the teachers had insisted he follow legal procedure. He refused to do this but did summarily suspend the teachers involved when they were questioned by the House Un-American Activities Committee.

The dismissals were confirmed by the then Republican State Superintendent of Public Instruction just before he resigned with the coming in of the new Democratic administration. The cases are now on appeal to the courts.

THE TEACHERS Union has conducted a campaign for the reinstatement of these teachers. This included publication several months ago of a book entitled "The Case Against the School Board." This was a scorching indictment of the travesty of hearings on their cases conducted by the Board.

At the conference Jennings charged the Board with perpetuating segregation in the city schools, revealing by figures from the Superintendent's own office that only infinitesimal progress had been made on the matter in the last four years.

Seven of the 15 Board members were, he pointed out, corporation directors. The vice president, Attorney Leon J. Obermayer, is a leader in the anti-union outfit "Americans for the Competitive Enterprise System," condemned by the CIO and AFL.

the schools, Jennings contended, derived from its control of some 3,000 patronage jobs, from those of janitors up.

The union's annual award for meritorious services was presented to the wife of the late Ben Anton, who served the school system as teacher and principal for 30 years. He was fired after invoking the 5th Amendment when questioned by the House Un-American Committee.

Among others who addressed the luncheon were Dr. Barrows Dunham, the philosopher; Miss Dorothy Parker, author; Rev. William Howard Melish, of the Holy Trinity Protestant Episcopal Church of Brooklyn; Isadore Rubin, editor of the New York City Teachers Union weekly Bulletin; and attorney John R. Carroll spoke at the panel discussion.

SARAJO LORD presented an outline of plans for the forthcoming dinner honoring LAWSON. The tentative date is 10/29/55, which date will be cleared with other organizations. Such related matters as the place it is to be held, actual program, entertainment, greetings from national and international organizations, advertising and other publicity are yet to be decided upon. ~~X~~

RUBY ROSENTHAL reported on the forthcoming event to be ASP sponsored honoring the birth of WALT WHITMAN. Tickets to this affair were distributed to the members of the Committee who were present for distribution. During the discussion as to who would be effective for the "pitch" for financial contributions at that event, the names of GALE SONDERGAARD, JANET STEVENSON, and ANNE REVERE were suggested. ~~X~~

Next meeting of the Executive Committee was set for 8/9/55. ~~X~~

Informant's report supplementing the write-up of the minutes included info. that plans for the dinner honoring LAWSON have been expanded, but the date has been postponed from 9/10/55 to 10/29/55 when LAWSON returns from a contemplated trip to New York. ASP expects six hundred people for this event. ~~X~~

A letter signed by P. P. COBBS will be sent to many international organizations and individuals requesting that greetings be sent to LAWSON for the occasion. Names such as DOROTHY PARKER, CHARLES CHAPLIN, THOMAS MANN, NEHRU of India, HENRY PRATT FAIRCHILD, ROBERT MORSS LOVETT, and many others were mentioned. ~~X~~

JANET STEVENSON's name was suggested for the "pitch" at the dinner, but LAWSON vetoed it for the reason that he felt JANET (STEVENSON) no longer believes in the importance or usefulness of ASP. LAWSON thinks she has a very negative attitude. ~~X~~

I helped organize a group of Jefferson School Annex Classes in the Coops. Among the subjects taught and instructors were:

Introduction to Marxism - Neils Kruth
Principals of Marxism I - Francis Franklin (I understand he was subsequently expelled from the C.P. for political reasons)
Problems of the Jewish People - Leonard Golditch
Problems of the Negro People - Cyril Philip

(Note: Don't other people in America have Problems besides Jewish and Negro People. - Why not Problems of the Irish People or Problems of Texans; Betcha that would be much more interesting).

#

Have in my scrapbook a letter from Iz Begun commending my publication of Section 10 Tidings (dated 1/13/47) with a few "suggestions for improvement".

Note: Gee, Time flies: That was 8½ years ago. Good thing I got out in 48 or I'd be writing a book, now.
